

Cornelius Stephens, D.C. ::

Cornelius Stephens is a chiropractor and applied kinesiologist based east of Atlanta in Conyers, GA. He has over 23 years of experience in the successful treatment of personal injuries related to slip & fall accidents, automobile accidents, sports-related accidents as well as common workplace accidents.

As the primary treating physician at East Metro Wellness Center, Dr. Stephens uses state-of-the-art chiropractic modalities, applied kinesiology, nutritional & herbal remedies and wholistic natural healthcare education & training to help patients resolve health issues. Stephens is vigorously committed to helping others achieve and maintain balanced health by finding the “cause” of their health complaint — 11,000 patients successfully treated and counting.

Background

Stephens was born and raised in Mobile, AL and moved to New York City after high-school to pursue a career in his passion — healthcare & wellness. He was trained as an x-ray technician at Memorial Sloan Kettering Hospital and earned a B.A. of Psychology from Lehman College of the City University of New York. Thereafter, Stephens relocated to Metro Atlanta and earned a Doctor of Chiropractic Degree from Life Chiropractic College, and has continued to travel throughout the country training and consulting with notable experts in the field of healthcare & wellness.

Post Graduate Certifications

Live/Dry Blood Evaluation (Microscopist)
Chiropractic Neurology
Cold Laser Therapy
Myofascial/Manual Therapy
Ten Step Protocol to Wellness
Herbal Medicine
Applied Kinesiology
Clinial Kinesiology

Professional Highlights

- Awarded 2010 Doctor of the Year by Sisters United in Human Services
- Contributing Editor for the renowned online magazine Emerging Minds since 2002
- Appearances on a number of radio and television talk shows as a health & wellness expert
- As an expert witness, successfully consulted trial attorneys in a number of vehicle accident settlements dating back to 1992

Dr. Stephens is currently expanding East Metro Wellness Center with more physicians and additional specialized services in order to help new and existing patients get better quicker.